University of Greenwich

Hey everyone!

I'm Morgane, a researcher at the University of Greenwich (UK), and I'm conducting a study on how early childhood experiences can influence emotional creativity in adulthood. If you're over 18 and open to sharing your experiences, I'd love your help! The survey is completely anonymous, takes about 30 minutes and explores topics such as early childhood experiences, emotions, and creativity.

Your insights could contribute to better mental health resources!
