I am looking for players of Helldivers II, Overwatch 2, and Rainbow Six: Siege. You participate by simply playing two sessions of the game (approx. 30 minutes each, on two different days), trying out a novel tool I made for 7 minutes, and filling out two short questionnaires (approx. 5 minutes each).

You join me in a Discord call and play a session while you share your screen and I record it to extract some data (videos are deleted afterward).
