Liverpool John Moores University

We are looking for participants for a short online questionnaire to better understand your attitudes towards and experiences of using e-cigarettes during pregnancy. The questionnaire is open to all pregnant women and women who have recently given birth (smokers, non-smokers and vapers are all welcome to take part). The questionnaire will take up to 15 minutes to complete and will be used to form part of a PhD thesis. You will receive a £10 Love2Shop voucher for your time.
